NOTICE: Special Requests for Early Delivery

Regardless of when your proclamation request is submitted, requests are prioritized and reviewed in order of proclamation date (i.e., the event date), unless you have requested an early delivery date as part of your initial request. Early delivery must be requested at least 6 weeks before you want the proclamation (or 14 weeks, if your request is related to multiculturalism or anti-racism).

For more details, please see the BC Proclamations website: <https://www.gov.bc.ca/proclamations/request>

Hello,

Thank you for your email.

If your email concerns a request for a BC Proclamation, please review the attached Proclamation Submission Guidelines. Ensure that your submission includes all of the required information.

1. Proclamation requests with incomplete or missing information will not be processed.
2. For requests involving health-related topics, omit any numbers, dates, statistics and any detailed medical or health-related information.
3. More information, including a sample outline and examples of best practices, is available online: www.gov.bc.ca/proclamations/request.

Submission Deadlines and Early Delivery Requests

1. Requests received are prioritized in order of the requested proclamation dates, not the date of your submission email, unless you make a special request for early delivery. Please highlight the early delivery date requested in the body of your submission email.
2. Late requests are not considered. General requests must be received at least 6 weeks before the date of the event or occasion in order to be considered (or 14 weeks prior for any requests involving multiculturalism or anti-racism topics).

Thank you for your patience. We will get back to you as soon as we can.

Sincerely,
